BUNDLE of WRITES

June 2017

Greetings from Alaska! I am writing this from the IRWA Annual Education Conference in beautiful (but chilly) Anchorage. This is my fourth conference and I have to say I enjoy it more each year. I appreciate seeing that our Chapter is part of a larger, multi-national organization that is making a difference in the world. It reminds me of why we all do what we do.

What makes IRWA so special? For me, it is the people, the ones I meet each year and the ones I have come to know after attending for several years make IRWA what it is. Most special to me are the people in Chapter 67. The professional and personal relationships I have made here have helped me to grow in so many ways. As several of you know, this year has been especially tough for me personally. I am so grateful for the support I have had during my time as your President. I'd especially like to thank Kirsten, Alyson and Artemis for their friendship and support. There are many others who have made my Presidential year a success as well. To name just a few, I'd like to thank Stu, Rhonda, James, Meredith, Amanda, Joe and Rudy. Together with the rest of our board, these are the folks who make our chapter successful. I'm glad to say they will continue to support our chapter next year.

We are well positioned to have a great 2017-2018 year under the leadership of Artemis Manos, with support from Alyson, Amanda and Meredith. Please be sure to join us for our June lunch (remember – the new date is June 20th) to see our officers installed. Our lunch will also feature a presentation by Scott Sheldon, President of Terra Realty Advisors who will be helping us in "Bringing Out Your Inner Moron." Scott will help us learn to bridge the gap between what we say and what others hear. My inner moron is looking forward to coming out!

Looking forward to seeing everyone on June 20th!
